

Emergency Medicine

Assistant, Associate or Full Professor

The Department of Emergency Medicine (<http://emergencymed.ucsd.edu/Pages/default.aspx>) at University of California, San Diego (UCSD) invites applications from outstanding candidates for a Clinician-Scholar appointment with the UCSD School of Medicine in the Department of Emergency Medicine. The Department currently operates three Emergency Departments with a combined census of nearly 150,000 patients annually (including level 1 trauma center and academic medical center), with a four-year EM residency program (11 residents/year), teaching programs for 1st through 4th year medical students, and robust fellowship programs in Toxicology, Hyperbarics, Pediatric EM, EMS, Ultrasound, and Research.

The UCSD Department of Emergency Medicine provides excellent opportunities for clinical service, teaching, and research at one of the nation's top-ranked Medical Schools and one of the most academically productive Emergency Departments in the country. The Department has had a long track-record of success in research with extramural funding from the NIH, NSF, HRSA, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, California Healthcare Foundation, and Department of Justice. The Department also serves as a site for the SIREN Consortium. The successful candidate will be able to build on this success to establish a trajectory focused on research and scholarly work.

Candidates must have an MD and have or be eligible for a California medical license or equivalent certification/permit as determined by the Medical Board of California.

Experience and interest in hyperbaric medicine, toxicology, ultrasound, critical care, informatics, EMS, or international emergency medicine is preferred.

The appropriate series and appointment at the Assistant, Associate or Full Professor level will be based on the candidate's qualifications and experience. Position may be full-time or part-time subject to funding.
